

variance; this is not a fit. Figure 3 shows the « dependence of the normalized variance in power fluctuations, $S_p / \langle P \rangle$ measured in different cells filled with M5 and with various A and d such that s

«50.124, where EC rolls are well developed but there is no defect creation or annihilation, $g_a(t$

